Healthcare Industry Veteran Terry Cameron Joins Recondo Technology as President and Chief Operating Officer

Greenwood Village, Colorado, May 20, 2014 — Recondo Technology today announced that Terry Cameron has joined the firm as President and Chief Operating Officer (COO), where he will oversee the operation and development of the Recondo hospital-based revenue cycle software and services.

Most recently, Terry was Senior Vice President of the Payment Integrity division of Emdeon where he led a variety of successful businesses focused on the payer segment of the healthcare market. Terry brings with him extensive hospital-based revenue cycle expertise based on his experience in senior roles at major health systems, including Duke University Health System, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Hospital, and Advocate Health Systems in Chicago. Terry has also held senior executive positions with Thomson Reuters, HealthPort Technologies, Medquist, and Ingenix.

“Terry brings a lifetime of healthcare experience and success to Recondo,” said Tony Miller, Recondo Chairman of the Board of Directors. “He joins us at a time of growth and expansion, and we look to Terry for his leadership and vision as we extend our reach from Patient Access across the Revenue Cycle into the Business Office and other areas that support our health system clients’ evolving needs.”

“I am very excited to be part of the Recondo team,” said Terry Cameron. “I look forward to working with our employees and customers as we continue to evolve the Recondo products and services to provide the world-class experience our customers expect and deserve.”
